Bridging the Gap Podcast Episode: "Being Strong in Your Battle" w/ Susie Larson

- Have you been part of an organization or ministry that has the "secret sauce" Susie was referencing? If so, how did setting aside your secondary differences to be unified for the cause of Christ allow God to work through you? If not, what may be holding you back from partnering across biblically-sound denominations?
- Offense is a state where you plan-to or are actively attacking your opponent and/or putting them at a disadvantage. How would your current battle(s) be different if you began the battle from an offensive stance? What truths from God's Word do you need to learn today so that you can walk in His promises when approaching or going through future battles?
- When facing adversity or a trial, Psalm 139 directs us to ask God to reveal any wicked way(s) that could give the enemy a foothold in your life. Is there something you need to submit to God in an effort to be in proper alignment with Him? Remember what Ephesians 5:11 says: "Take no part in the worthless deeds of evil and darkness; instead, expose them" (NLT). If possible, find a confidant whom you can talk with for prayer, encouragement, and accountability.
- Susie highlights several individuals from the Bible whom we can learn from when encountering battles. Is there a particular story that resonates with you? If so, why? If not, is there another battle in the Bible that better reflects your situation?
